Attn. Celsius/Stretto (Case No. 22-10964)

Cc: The Honorable Martin Glenn

The secondary response I received from Celsius/Stretto re: Case No. 22-10964 is NOT acceptable. I demand answers and the FULL amount of cryptocurrency due me as described in the Celsius bankruptcy lawsuit. I am including The Honorable Martin Glenn, the judge presiding over this case, in this correspondence so he can specifically how frustrated I am regarding the handling of this case by Celsius/Stretto.

I will explain my situation in a specific, time stamped format supported with emails in chronological order. First, however, please answer specifically and precisely these three questions:

1) Why did I receive four (4) Claim Codes?

- a. One (1) Claim Code for 0.00018171 BTC (approximate value: $11.36) [NOTE: this code worked just fine]
- b. One (1) Claim Code for 0.00271543 ETH (approximate value: $8.65) [NOTE: this code worked just fine]
- c. One (1) Claim Code for 0.1636714 BTC (approximate value: $10,239.94) [NOTE: this code does NOT work]
- d. One (1) Claim Code for 2.44586019 ETH (approximate value: $7,826.75) [NOTE: this code does NOT work]

2) Why did Claim Codes for two (2) small, negligible claims work just fine, but the Claim Codes for two (2) larger claims don't work at all?

3) Why in the email below did you state: "We see that both your claim codes were successfully redeemed" When in fact you sent me FOUR (4) Claim Codes?*

I have been more than patient. I realize everyone on all fronts have been working diligently on this case. I just want it resolved fairly. To simplify the process, just send the Claim Codes representing larger claims to my dan\_eilers@yahoo.com email.

Thank you for your time.

Enjoy the day!
